

(ABOVE) The committee of the Reville Moth Shellhole, one of whose members (he prefers to remain anonymous) donated £250 to be presented by the Shellhole to the Benoni branch of the South African National Tuberculosis Association, photographed outside the Moth Club last weekend.

Mr. T. C. Holder, Old Bill of the Reville Shellhole, presents Mr. W. A. Davey, Mayor of Benoni and President of the Santa branch here, with a cheque for £250 to fight TB at an informal function at the Moth Club over the week-end.

MAYOR RECEIVES £250 FROM MOTHS

Benoni has been a late starter in its campaign to raise funds to fight tuberculosis, but was now rapidly making up the leeway, and was already overhauling its neighbours, declared the Mayor, Mr. W. A. Davey, when he accepted a cheque for SANTA for £250 from the Reville Moth Shellhole at a function in the Mayor's Parlour last week.

Mr. T. C. Holder, Old Bill of the Re- the 3rd time the Moths had come to aid