8. Shipping via Postnet attracts an additional cost of R110. We will endeavor to move items by hand to save on costs where possible.

How to measure yourself:

How to take body measurements

Before you start measuring, remember to:

1. Use a non-stretchable tape measure.
2. Make sure the tape measure is level around your body and parallel to the floor.
3. Keep the tape close to your skin without depressing it.

Chest/Bust: Measure all the way around your bust and back on the line of your nipples.

Waist: Measure at its narrowest point width-wise, usually just above the navel.

Hips: Measure around the widest part of the hip bones.

Converting body measurements into garment size:

There is no set formula to convert your body measurement into garment measurements. There are several factors to take into account: fabrics (knits, woven, lycra), personal fit preference i.e. do you like to wear garments that fit you snug or loose, style, body shapes, etc.

This is our rough estimation on fits; it might not be true for all body shapes. These estimates are based on regular fit items.

Ladies: Regular fit.

	S	M	L	XL	2XL	3XL	4XL	5XL
Bust: Full Body Measurements	80 - 87cm	88 - 97cm	98 - 105cm	106 - 114cm	115 - 122cm	123 - 130cm	131 - 138cm	139 - 148cm

Gents: Regular fit.

	S	M	L	XL	2XL	3XL	4XL	5XL
Chest: Full Body Measurements	83 - 91cm	92 - 100cm	101 - 109cm	110 - 121cm	122 - 132cm	133 - 143cm	144 - 154cm	155 - 162cm
